RURAL ELECTRIFICATION!

Impact of our Energydock Power Solutions

Otilia Nuyoma from the Oshitenda informal settlement in Windhoek, Namibia, said: "My life has changed for the better as I am now able to sell fresh meat, chicken, and fish to my neighbours as well as charge their cell phones." Her son, Paulinus echoed the sentiment adding that the sales made from the fridge had improved their standard of living; allowing him to afford taxi rides to school and the lights allowed him to study and ultimately pass his grade 11 exams.
